bed in cases of sickness or with persons of imperfect circulation in cold weather. Hot-water bottles, of glass, ruboer or clay, with bricks, soap stones, billets of wood, and other articles are employed in the mission; but the handiest and the best, because the most satisfaatory method, is said to be a bag of sand. This may be prepared in almost anyway to suit make a flannel bag some eight or teeth; the neglect of this causes ten inches square, which should the teeth to decay be filled with fine, perfectlydried sand, the whole being covered with a layer of linen, cotton or stout canvas. This can be easily and quickly heated by placing it anywhere about the stove or oven where it is not too hot; it can be easily adjusted to the feet, back, chest or any other portion of the body, will retain the heat for a long time, and will in use displace any other agency for the same purpose.

Specimen Cases.

S. H. Clifford, New Cassel, Wis., was troubled with Neuralgia and rheumatism, his stomach was disordered, his liver was affected to an alarming degree, appetite fell away, and he was terribly reduced in flesh and strength. Three bottles of Electric Bitters cured him.

Edward Shepherd, Harrisburg, Ill, had a running sore on his leg of eight years standing. Used three bottles of Electric Bitters and seven boxes of Buckleu's Arnica Salve, and his leg is sound and well. John Speaker, Catawba, O., had five large fever sores on his leg, doctors said he was incurable. One bottle Electric Bitters and one box Bucklen's Arnica Salve cured him entirely. Sold at B. F. Henry's Drugstore.

Every family is liable to have a hereditary taint of consumption in it. It may date back 3 or even 4 generations. This fact makes it necessary always to have on hand a remedy with which to combat this formidable disease. A cough when taken at first can readily be cured before it gets a serious hold on the lungs. Ballard,s Horehound Syrup when taken in its early stages will cure consumption. It is guaranteed to bring relief in every case, when EVERY NUMBER FINELY ILLUSTRATED used for any affection of the throat, lungs and chest, such as consumption, inflammation of the lungs, bronchitis, asthma, whooping cough, croup, etc. It is Price, $3,00 a Year. pleasant to take, perfectly safe and can always be depended on.
